

DISASTER VICTIM IDENTIFICATION

- IN THEORY AND PRACTICE

Fri 5th & Sat 6th May 2017

A training event for a Radiographer wishing to become a member of an Irish Forensic Radiography Response Team (IrIFRRT)

To be held at Tallaght Hospital, Dublin 24

THIS PROGRAMME WILL FOCUS ON

- 2 separate training days with a theoretical day on Friday, followed by practical training on Saturday
- Elements of the theory & practice of working in an Emergency Mortuary
- Roles and responsibilities of staff in the Emergency Mortuary
- Guest speakers include national & international experts in Disaster Victim Identification (DVI)
 - Dr. Linda Mulligan (State Pathologist), Dr. Brian Farrell (retired Coroner), Dr. Jonathan McNulty (UCD), Mark Viner (International Association of Forensic Radiographers, IAFR), Jeroen Kroll (IAFR)
- Practical experience in the challenges associated with forensic imaging for DVI

Online registration via the IIRRT website by clicking on

BOOK EVENTS: www.iirrt.ie

Programme will be available on IIRRT website when finalised.

Cost: €75 for both days (refundable to Irish radiographers)

Closing date for registration: Mon 1st May 2017

LIMITED PLACES AVAILABLE**